

PROSPECTUS

We, the people of South Africa,
Recognise the injustices of our past;
Honour those who suffered for justice and freedom in our land;
Respect those who have worked to build and develop our country; and
Believe that South Africa belongs to all who live in it, united in our diversity.

We therefore, through our freely elected representatives, adopt this Constitution as the supreme law of the Republic so as to

- Heal the divisions of the past and establish a society based on democratic values, social justice and fundamental human rights;
- Lay the foundations for a democratic and open society in which government is based on the will of the people and every citizen is equally protected by law;
- Improve the quality of life of all citizens and free the potential of each person; and
- Build a united and democratic South Africa able to take its rightful place as a sovereign state in the family of nations.

May God protect our people.

Nkosi Sikelel' iAfrika. Morena boloka setjhaba sa heso.

God seën Suid-Afrika. God bless South Africa.

Mudzimu fhatutshedza Afurika. Hosi katekisa Afrika.

– Preamble to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa

Dear Students,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the Regenesys School of Law. Our institution is committed to providing high-quality legal education that equips our students with the knowledge, skills, and values required to become ethical and competent legal professionals.

Regenesys School of Law offers a wide range of programmes, including the fully accredited undergraduate Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree, short courses, and continuing legal education programmes. Our faculty comprises experienced and accomplished legal professionals who bring their expertise to the classroom to provide you with a comprehensive and practical education.

We are proud of our strong tradition of academic excellence and commitment to holistic education, where we focus on unlocking your emotional, spiritual, physical, and financial intelligences, as well as your cognitive intelligence. We believe that our graduates are well-equipped to make a meaningful contribution to the legal profession and society as a whole.

I and the rest of the faculty of Regenesys Law School look forward to working with you and supporting you on your journey towards becoming a successful legal professional.

Warm regards,

Advocate Kevin Malunga

UNDERSTANDING THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT (POPIA)

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

The Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) is a new data protection law in South Africa that aims to protect the privacy of individuals by regulating the processing of their personal information. This course is designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of the POPIA, its principles, and its implications for businesses and individuals who process personal information.

THE COURSE WILL COVER THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

Introduction to POPIA: This module will cover the background and context of the POPIA, including its purpose and objectives, and the legal framework surrounding it.

POPIA Principles: This module will cover the eight principles of POPIA, including the purpose for which personal information is collected, the type of personal information that can be collected, and the manner in which personal information should be processed, among others.

Compliance Requirements: This module will focus on the compliance requirements of the POPIA, including the appointment of an information officer, the development of a privacy policy, and the implementation of technical and organisational measures to ensure the protection of personal information.

Rights of Data Subjects: This module will cover the rights of data subjects under POPIA, including the right to access their personal information, the right to correct their personal information, and the right to object to the processing of their personal information, among others.

Implications for Businesses: This module will examine the implications of POPIA for businesses, including the potential consequences of non-compliance, the impact on marketing and communication practices, and the importance of developing a culture of privacy within an organisation.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, participants should be able to:

- Understand the key principles of POPIA and their implications for businesses and individuals.
- Identify the compliance requirements of POPIA and develop strategies to ensure compliance.
- Understand the rights of data subjects and develop policies and procedures to ensure these rights are protected.

- Develop an understanding of the implications of POPIA for businesses and be able to develop a privacy culture within an organisation.
